

Back again for The California State Championships,
Shootout at 5 Dogs Creek
May 3, 4, 5, 2012

THE HOWLING WOLF SALOON

“When you step thru the swinging doors you step thru time and arrive at an authentic place from the old west.” Come and enjoy this old west atmosphere, converse with old and new friends, listen to the sounds of some fine old country music, have a drink of your choice, or not. Play some poker, or challenge a saddle mate to game of checkers or The Howling Wolf is all about social activities and just hav’n fun.

If you have a hole in your education and don’t know about the Howling Wolf Saloon, see page two.

Enjoy Brandy’s Famous Lemonade + Margaritas, Ice cold draft beer, Sarsaparilla, Soft drinks, Wine, Whiskey..., Cigars, Peanuts to shell and throw on the floor. Also Cowboy Church on Sunday morning with Rev Barry M. Deep.

Howling Wolf special rules:

- No. 1: Saloon open during the day for soft drinks and lemonade. Bar opens when shooting stops.
- No. 2: Poker tables open all the time.
- No. 3: The Howling Wolf does not serve women! You must bring your own.
- No. 4: Any guns brought into the bar become the property of Gus.
- No. 5: Ladies Mandatory Shooter’s Meetings anytime the bell rings. Gentlemen watch out.

Gus Ashcroft and Brandy Rose, Proprietors

The Howling Wolf Saloon operates as a Private Party: Party supporter fee is $20 for all 3 nights if paid by April 20, 2012, $25 thereafter. Social only supporter available for $10 (soft drinks). Must be a shoot participant! Guests of a participant please make arrangements before.

All match participants (with event badge) are welcome.

SASS Alias: _____

Name _____

Phone: _____ E-Mail: _____

(no e-mail?, please include street address)

5 Dogs 2012

Make Checks Payable to and Mail to: J.W. Burdge, 3309 Claremont Ave., Modesto, CA 95350
Questions or more info E-mail: jburdge@hotmail.com

Just in case you are wondering ----

WHAT IS THE “HOWLING WOLF SALOON”?

Just as in the old American west, saloons were in tents. Set up on creek banks, or at a cross road, some moved along at end of track on railroad construction, or in mining camps and in new towns. A couple of Whiskey barrels and a few planks was all that was needed to start. As the west grew, the saloon continued to be the center of social interaction for a cowboy, miner, business man or traveler, a social gathering point for entertainment, a place for the exchange of information, or a place to transact business.

The Howling Wolf Saloon is an Old West Style Saloon in a tent just like the Old West and it's all about social activities. Tables to sit and rest, talk, play cards, discuss your shooting prowess or just lie about how good or poorly you shot. Music is Classic Country easy to listen to or just sit and socialize.

Poker games start when the tables have enough players.

The Howling Wolf Saloon has been providing western saloon activities for cowboy shooters for over eight years from Virginia City, Nevada, to Peaceful's End of Track, John Wayne Shootout (CVSO), High Sierra, 5 Dogs, Gunfight Behind the Jersey Lily and a number private affairs. The Wolf is proud to continue the fine tradition of being the center for social activities and provide that Old West social atmosphere at this year's “Shootout at 5 Dogs Creek”.

The Howling Wolf can not sell any food or beverages, so it is set up as a private party for the event shooters and their guests. You can obtain co-proprietorships good for the length of the event (3 days, Thurs, Fri, Sat) for $20.00 prior to April 20, 2012, price goes up to $25 thereafter. Co-proprietors are entitled access to the bar, gambling area, and music areas as well. “YES, MARTHA THAT'S ALL IT COSTS FOR ALL THREE DAYS” to enjoy adult beverages, including well drinks, ice cold draft beer, a wine bar and the famous “Howling At the Moon Brandy” “right from the barrel. We will be making margaritas, but no other fancy drinks, “this is a Cowboy bar, after all.” For a social proprietorship, there are diet and non-diet sodas, lemonade and of course, “Sarsaparilla” for only $10.00 for the three days. There is no greater value anywhere.

But, if you just want to come and set around and talk all you need is your event badge.