Since Alacran and I were some of the people who jumped ship and went to State, I relied on the reports from others for the news from the range.

Thank you Calgary Kate and Montego. Kate Barlow and Bones Brannon put on a bueno match with a Cinco de Mayo theme. Tostata and balloon targets, Mexican Train dominoes and margaritas.

Bracketing the Dominos tournament, chips & salsa, margaritas, special brandy, and Cinco de Mayo potluck themed dinner, we had a couple of shooting matches where it became normal to shoot at food, mostly tostadas.

We shot, we ate, drank, socialized, we had fun, and we've got scores too! :-)

Sounds like a great weekend.

Town Council positions are open for nominations.
Elections will held at the June shoot.

All positions are open for nomination. Mayor, Sheriff, Banker, Blacksmith, Range Wrangler are willing to do another year. We defiantly need a new shopkeeper, Alacran has been doing it for 5 years and says it is someone else's turn. We also need an editor for the Newsletter.

3.03 THE NEWS EDITOR: The news editor is the clubs information manager. They inform the members of the meetings, records the decisions in the minutes, and helps with the newsletter. They are in charge of publishing the newsletter.

3.06 THE STOREKEEPER: The storekeeper acquires all needed consumables and maintains inventory. They also make recommendations to the TC concerning supplies.

Welcome to new shooters John Fornow and Mrs. Mudd. Welcome to the madness.

So come on out and play for the weekend.

The May match, was put on by Bones Brannon and Kate Barlow. Thank you both for a fun match, you have proven that adults still want to play with their food. I think every time most of us hear the words La cucaracha we will think of 1,2,1,1, if you weren't there it may not make sense. The June match is being put on by Bo Bean and Jim Bean, make sure your guns are oiled. If you have ever wondered how fast you can shoot a match, this match should answer those questions. I would like to thank everyone that pulled together and helped to get things out for the match and put away after the match. I would like to thank everyone that helped with the social events after the match on Saturday; you made it a fun weekend.
