From the Mayor . . .

The November match is in the books. Wow what a match! And speaking of food, we had the most successful Sunday breakfast potluck to date. Buddy Love and Sista Sangria did eggs, biscuits and gravy. Nothing like those biscuits done in a dutch oven. That accompanied by coffee cakes, pumpkin bread, fresh fruit and donuts made for some great vittles.

Start planning now to be at 5 Dogs for at the New Year's weekend. What a party is planned. The 5 Dogs Creek gang will have a three-day match to bring in the New Year! Join us for Friday and Saturday, December 30-31, and Sunday and Monday, January 1-2, 2017.

There will be three separate 5 stage main matches. Side matches are planned for Saturday and Sunday afternoons, long range shooting as well. Camping Friday Dec.30 'till Tues Jan.3, Potlucks Friday Hot Dogs, Sat BBQ Turkey, and Sun. Stone Soup etc. etc. Come for all or part as you wish

Sheriff's Log

A special thanks to Jim Bean for a great November match. Jim used all the bays and had some unique scenarios that kept it fun and fast. The December match will be put on by Mad Trapper of Rat River. I'm guessing it just might be gunfighter friendly. We hope to see you all at the range. Remember with winter coming on there might be some fog on the trip to the range so allow a little extra time and drive safely.

See you at the range

Mad Dog Draper

*Merry Christmas to all
And to all a good night
And when you shoot,
Use yer front sight*

VULTURES PICK NEW RESTING PERCHES

Carrie Carrion waits for the next hanging victim atop the gallows

Calgary Kate took this shot of "The Professor" keeping an eye on those two vultures and any stray rodents roaming the range. Gunshots did not scare it at all. However, the helicopter that paid us a visit gave him/her pause for thought when it landed. It had a huge wingspan when it flew away. Keep your eye out as this owl considers 5 Dogs its home.

Wishing you a very
MERRY CHRISTMAS
