

The Howler at 5 Dogs

February 2022

Hey Folks

I want to say thank you to all the people who came out Saturday, February 19, for the workday. We had a great turn out and got a lot done. Thank you to Donna and Kelly for making lunch for us.

We got the cover for the loading table put on bay 2 . The board voted to build one and see if members wanted to build them on the rest of the bays. Please go and check it out next match and tell us what you think . We will have a quick meeting after the scores are read at the April match where we will vote on building more , or not.

Hope to see you all at the range in March.
Buddy

A Cowboy is Lost

A hard working cowboy saddles up and rides out in the plain like he has done for his whole life. In a blizzard he is lost. Not much later around the campfire the other ranch hands get to remembering the one they loved but was gone. Mostly it was laughter, some was tears. One cowboy spoke up and said that one day everyone will be back together in the next life. The feeling of loss became diminished and some smiled thinking of the next sunrise.
