

5 DOGS CREEK HOWLER

SHOOTERS EXPERIENCE THE "PERILS OF THE OLD WEST"

The Saturday and Sunday November matches were excellent. The stages provided fun for every type of shooter. Those who like fast scenarios with close targets were happy and those who like a little greater challenge found lots to smile about.

Perfect weather with cool temperatures provided a nice respite from the heat of the past few months. The cooler weather also brought with it the return of many long-lost pardos who have been conspicuously absent for several months. It was great to see so many friends join us from Kings River Regulators, Faultline and beyond!

Portugee Phillips provided five great stages for the 21 shooters at the fun match on Saturday.

Next time you see Portugee, be sure to thank him for his over-the-top efforts this year. He wrote and set-up the stages for nearly every Saturday match this year. His has an incredible knack for writing scenarios that are always fun. This month was no exception. Thank you, Portugee. Saturday matches would not have happened this year without your ongoing efforts!

Top of the pack on Saturday was Sudden followed by Badfinger and Swedish Cowboy.

The main match on Sunday, Perils of the Old West, was sponsored by Bones Brannon. His first attempt at putting together a match was very successful.

PERILS OF NOVEMBER MATCH

Jail breaks, shaking off a flesh wound, dealing with those who cheat at poker, practical jokers and branding cattle were all in a days work for the 60 shooters.

On stage one, shooters broke out of jail and then had the chance to shoot both shotgun and rifle from the hip and give duelist style shooting a try. On another stage, while facing a bottom-dealing cheater, shooters took care of the dealer by shooting at him from under a table. The table was raised, but provided a challenge as the gun was not in sight of the shooter.

Stage five began by actually placing your brand on a calf using a branding iron. Well, it was a plywood "calf," but the effect was still good. Flying birds, chasing away rattlesnakes (cans) and other bonus shots added to enjoyment of the day. As always, accommodations were made for shooters who felt unsafe engaging in any of the different shooting positions.

There were many firsts for 5 Dogs Creek in this match... and no doubt that Bones Brannon's creativity was working overtime! And, it will be a very long time before he lives down the procedural he earned on one stage by shooting his own creative sequence out of order.

Tie Long did not succumb to the perils of the day and took the top spot. Close on his trail was Snakebite and Tom Doodley-Squat. Thanks to bonus shots many shooters had a clean match, but no one made it through the match without any misses.

Toughest cowboy of the day was elder statesman Buzzard who shot most of the day – with several broken ribs and other ailments from a recent motorcycle mishap. Apparently a few days before the match he took a flying leap over the handlebars of this motorcycle. Ouch! His posse reports that he never complained and stuck it out until he felt he may become unsafe. Then, and only then, did he pack up his guns for the day. This tough cowboy also took a 4,000 ride this summer on his bike. Obviously, much more statesman than elder!

El Alacran Del Norte, shooting his second match, and Miss Foxi Schoolmarm enjoyed the day.

Top: Derby slim takes aim under the table at a cheating poker player.

Congratulations to Doll Maker and Slap Happy Sam who successfully shot their first match. Doll Maker has been helping on the range for months and it was great to see her make some lead fly. Slap Happy Sam worked with a posse all day Saturday and, while he had to escape a little early on Sunday, is probably still smiling from the shooting he was able to complete. These two are great additions to any posse!

Many potential new members were watching closely on Saturday and Sunday. Mescalero completed new shooter orientations for several cowboys and cowgirls over the weekend. Eve Nenjoy even brought her trailer all the way from Coalinga to see her first cowboy action shooting event...and give her new rifle a try.

Be sure to introduce yourself to any new faces you may see on the range and help them get acquainted with "the cowboy way."

PLAN NOW TO RING IN 2006 WITH YOUR PARDS

What could be better than spending New Year's Eve on the range with good friends? How about celebrating with friends AND having Almost Dangerous cook dinner? What if we throw in a huge bon fire? Oh...and shooting on both Saturday and Sunday!!

Mescalero will be writing 10 stages (five for Saturday and five more for Sunday) all based on the movie Quigley Down Under. Be prepared for lots of rifle.

Almost Dangerous will need to know in advance if you are planning on having dinner. Please RSVP to him directly at dangerous@westernfiresupport.com or (760) 376-4493 so he knows how much food to prepare.

Your family and friends are welcome. Bring your camping gear and enjoy the fun. How can you not be there?

MEMBERSHIP RENEWALS ARE DUE FOR 2006

It's time to renew your membership to 5 Dogs Creek. Membership dues can be paid at the December or January matches or sent to Miss Becky (Becky Jennings) at 6113 Cochran Drive, Bakersfield, CA 93309.

Dues for 2006 remain $35 for an individual or $50 for a family (family members must be living in the same household). Next year match fees for members will be $12 on both Saturdays and Sundays.

TOWN COUNCIL ELECTIONS

Last month nominations were accepted for the 2006 Town Council. Elections will be held at the December match. If you will not be at the match, ballots may be submitted in advance. Contact Almost Dangerous for details about how to vote absentee.

While the names of those good souls who have stepped forward for consideration were not available at the time of publication, please remember that they are NOT responsible for everything at the range! It takes many hands to build and maintain a quality club.

There are lots and lots of projects and specific jobs needing assistance. For example, it would be wonderful if someone would step forward and be willing to compile and submit the scores each month (hint! hint!). Now, that doesn't mean you have to be at every match. You could arrange for a substitute on months you are unable to attend. It's not hard, but makes a big difference in the amount of work currently done by a few.

Just ask what needs to be done...and you can help keep YOUR club one of the best around!
